Do' s for responsible use of social media:

- Use professional platforms like github, linkedIn to know the current digital environment and updates with showing your skills
- Set your profiles private, try to not to share personal details until or unless needed.
- Stay professional and keep your tone professional while using digital platforms
- Use strong passwords and different password for each platform
- Use two step verification methods like google

Don'ts for responsible use of social media:

- Never share your passwords to anyone
- Do not trust blindly any messages come to you
- Do not post illegal content
- Turning on your location in real time
- Do not trust everything present online